WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed.

PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: How to respond when the going gets tough

Jesus receives this death threat and refuses to cower from that intimidation, instead insulting the mighty ruler. Jesus' priority is not his own safety but in doing what he recognises as God's will, even though that places him in danger. The disciples, in contrast, are often painted as real cowards who let Jesus down and fled away from danger when he was arrested. But this picture does not totally reflect the very deliberate way in which Jesus put himself in harm's way and went in a determined manner to his rendezvous with death on the cross. It was extremely difficult to look after Jesus when he refused warnings and rebuked anybody who tried to prevent his arrest. The events of Easter were no surprise to Jesus, he choreographed the whole proceedings. The story from Luke this week tells us why. Jesus saw his own death as being necessary to give protection to others. As he was to spread wide his arms on the cross, he saw this as being like a hen which stretches out its wings to protect its chicks from danger. This is both a challenge and a reassurance for us. Let us endeavour to running away from God when the going gets tough. However, if we do fail, let us take comfort that Jesus is always there to protect his chicks.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND: This is a prayer written by Dietrich Bonhoeffer when he was imprisoned. May it give us reassurance when life is hard:

God of the day and of the night, in me there is darkness, but with you there is light. I am alone, but you will not leave me. I am weak, but you will come to my help. I am restless, but you are my peace. I am in haste, but you are the God of infinite patience. I am confused and lost, but you are eternal wisdom and you direct my path; now and for ever. Amen of repentance and the heaven-rending words of the Spirit. Amen.
