WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: It is not necessarily bad to be a Doubting Thomas!

Poor old Thomas, he is forever remembered as 'Doubting Thomas'. This is in spite of the fact that we are told that others doubted and so do all of us at one time or another. He just wanted to be sure that Jesus really was alive and since Jesus didn't have a normal body and was walking through walls it is hardly surprising. Thomas just says out loud the things the others keep to themselves. It was Thomas also who asked Jesus what on earth he was talking about when he said he was going to 'prepare a place for them'. We are fortunate that Thomas voices the questions which we all have and in so doing shows us that it is alright to have doubts and fears in our faith. Like Thomas we do not know what happens when we die, we are filled with questions. Thankfully this is a good thing, faith is like a muscle; it grows by stretching. It is good for our faith to be stretched like Thomas and in this way we learn to understand that there are many things which we just do not and never will understand.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND: Heavenly Father, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant that, as his death has recalled us to life, so his continual presence in us may raise us to eternal joy; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
