WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed.

PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: We can all be prophets

When we see the way that Jesus treated people, one thing is clear. He liked them. He had compassion on them and cared for them. There were some people he had problems with, but only because they were religious hypocrites and thought better of themselves than everybody else. Jesus gave people time and effort and energy, even when they interrupted his plans for a holiday, as happened in the reading from Mark this weekend. Now how would we feel if everybody came after us when we had decided to go off somewhere nice and quiet on a boat? Do we like other people sufficiently to change our plans for them if necessary?

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND:

This is a very thought provoking prayer of Augustine of Hippo, a saint who lived in the fifth century: O God, you are the light of the minds that know you, the life of the souls that love you, and the strength of the wills that serve you; help us so to know you that we may truly love you, so to love you that we may fully serve you, whom. whom to serve is perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
