WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help.

We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed.

PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to You. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

Thought for the weekend: What can we learn from Thomas?

Thomas appears three times in John's gospel and each time he appears to be a realist with a pragmatic and practical outlook on life. The first time he appears is when Jesus is setting out to Bethany and putting His life in danger and Thomas says, 'Let us go and die with him'. Next, at the Last Supper when Jesus invites the disciples to follow Him Thomas replies, 'We don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way'. So it is perhaps not surprising that Thomas, grounded in reality and pragmatism, says that unless he sees the hands and side of Jesus and the wounds that the nails had made that he will not (cannot) believe.

He wants to touch the risen Christ to be sure. For Thomas, only the wounds have the power to reveal the love of God and change the apparent doubt into faith. Jesus then appears in the locked room once more and invites Thomas to reach out. At this stage it's not clear whether Thomas did reach out and touch the wounds, and everything changed for him, or whether the wounds reached out and touched Thomas and everything changed. We can never physically touch the wounds of Christ, but like Thomas, we can let the wounds touch us on our daily Easter journey of the resurrected Christ and allow ourselves to be continually changed to be more like Christ.

OUR PRAYER FOR THE WEEKEND IS A PRAYER FOR SUPPORT WHEN TIMES ARE HARD:

Dear Lord, you know that we are fearful – make us brave! You know that we are weak – give us your strength! You know that we are unfaithful – make us true. Amen.

Please refer to the Electoral Roll information at the back of Church.

Coffee after church will take place on the 1st Sunday of each month.
Please bring your reuseable cup.
