WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS! We hope you find all you need to participate in the service, but please ask if you need help. We have a hearing induction loop and the service is livestreamed. PLEASE NOTE: If you do not wish to be seen on camera, the North Aisle (by the Blue Corner) is out of view, and communion can be brought to you. Just mention this to one of our Welcomers

* A SPECIAL WELCOME TO PARENTS. If you have brought children with you today, we are delighted to have them with us. Please sit where you can see comfortably and follow what's going on. There is an area at the back of church (the 'Blue Corner') with colouring sheets and quiet toys for you to use if needed. You will find toilets, including baby changing facility, through the Vestry.

* COVID AWARE. Mask wearing is a personal decision. However, the North Aisle is also dedicated for those who wish to maintain social distance.

Please switch mobile phones off (or put on silent) during the Service

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEKEND: "Will you come to the party?"

Jesus once told a story about a magnificent banquet held by a king, to which the rich and famous were been invited. One by one, the guests who had all promised to be there, turned down the invitation, made excuses and became enemies of the king. It sounds ridiculous, why would everybody treat the king in such a fashion when they had been invited as special guests to his feast? The story might seem to be far fetched, people just don't behave like that. Or do they?

Jesus has a serious point to make. God over generations has called people to his banquet, special guests - but not everybody accepts the invitation. No doubt Jesus had certain people in mind when he spoke, people who had been violent towards him in his ministry, even though he was sent by God. Today the story has a further meaning. Now the invitation is made to each one of us. We are all invited to share in the celebration of God's kingdom. We have your invitation, are we going or not?
