Thought for the weekend: Stir up Sunday

This Sunday is the last of the Church year. Our Post Communion prayer today reminds us that it is 'Stir Up Sunday' a Sunday traditionally synonymous with Christmas puddings. The great cry 'stir up' was a reminder to congregations to get the Christmas pudding made in plenty of time to mature before Christmas. However, the prayer is actually asking God for something much more important. We are praying that God will stir up our wills, so that we might get on with doing the good works that he has planned for us to do. Then, as a consequence, we pray that we might receive our abundant reward.

In an age when so much emphasis is placed on how we feel, it is interesting to get another perspective. In the end, it is our will, rather than our feelings, that is the most important governor of our actions. Real love is not about feeling it is about choosing, by our wills, to do good to others even though we may not feel good towards them. Our feelings should not dominate our wills. And so we pray that God will "stir up" our wills, so that they will be in charge of us, doing what we know is right. In this prayer we recognise that we can't do this by ourselves, we need God's help for our wills to function properly.

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEKEND: This weekend we remember that Jesus is King. Here is a prayer that reminds us what sort of a King He is:

Jesus our King, we praise you for all that you have done for us. We
